TO HIS
Most Excellent MAJESTIE
KING

CHARLES

The Second, Our Most Gracious

SOVERAIGN.

The humble Address of the Officers of the several Regiments, &c.

WITH such a Joy as flows from Reverence and Love, We humbly present our selves
before your Sacred Majestie : Besides our reflection on the Common good, w<sup>ch</sup> in this happy Change relates to our particular, intends this joy, and renders it sincere; For we can now please our selves in our selves, while we are really performing that Duty for which we were first raised. And with all Thankfulnesse we acknowledge that Care your Majestie in your late Letter and Declaration hath expressed of our Necessary Intent.

We blesse God to see that day when the serenity of every mans Countenance discovers the tranquility of his minde, for this shewes your Majestie to be the true Soul of the People, since during your absence the whole Nation was cast into such Distractions, as we have no pleasure to remember, but had rather turn our Thoughts and gratefull Acknowledgements to the happy Conduct of our Noble Generall, who hath thus farre lead us in our Duty to your Royall Person. Yet as we cannot attribute too much to his Merits, so neither can we deprive our selves of that Honour and Comfort which we finde in the accomplishment of his just designe.

Therefore

Therefore in plain and Souldier-like (though humble) termes, we say your Majestie hath made us and the Nation happy in your Return to this your Native Kingdome; which doubtlesse will, nay we may say, hath produced a settlement upon the foundation of our Ancient Laws;
 By the due Execution of which, together with your Majesties pious Inclinations, we trust Libertisme and Prophaneness wholly suppressed, the Protestant Cause and true professors of it encouraged, to the comfort of all your Religious and Good People.

Your Majestie will now have your Great Council about you, who have already given proof of their Loyalty and Wisdome both to your Majestie and them.
 We Professe and Declare, That as we have not been altogether uselesse in the Restoration as well of your Sacred Majestie to your Crownes and Kingdomes, as your People

People to their just Rights, so we shall in the future cheerfully sacrifice our Lives, or whatsoever can be more dear to us in the Service of your Majestie against all Oppositions whatsoever, and by a ready Obedience to your Majesties Commands, Expressse our selves,

Your Majestie most Loyall Subjects, and obedient Servants.

FINIS.

I have to thank you for the letter of the 10th inst. and for the information it contains. I am glad to hear that you are well and hope you will continue to be so. I am, dear Sir, Yours very truly,
 J. W. F.
